

I urge you to enhance and increase regulation of the broadcast ownership regulations rather than to relax them. It is essential that as many voices and opinions as possible be heard by the public. This country should not be based solely on consumerism. Its citizens needs to be wholely so as to uphold their voting responsibilities. Our soldiers are fighting for freedom... further consolidation of the media will erode our opportunity to hear a diversity of opinions. If anything...increase regulations!!